

Information on press accreditation - 35th FILMFEST DRESDEN (18.-23.04.2023)

Press accreditations for the 35th FILMFEST DRESDEN are issued to journalists and media representatives from the print, online, TV, radio, podcast, YouTube and photo areas. They are provided only for the purpose of journalistic reporting.

Applications for press accreditations to the 35th FILMFEST DRESDEN are accepted up to and including 24. March 2023. Press accreditation after this date incurs a €30 service charge. For further information please have a look at the general accreditation conditions on our website.

The following persons are entitled to apply for a press accreditation:

1. Press pass holders with passes issued by one of the relevant associations in the German Federal Republic (DJV, DPV, DFJV, ver.di, dju, Verband der Zeitschriftenverleger, DAG).
2. International representatives of the press who can demonstrate their journalist status by means of their press pass issue in their country of origin or provide written verification of their press assignment from their editor or editorial office.
3. Members of accepted organisations of foreign press representatives (Foreign Press Association, German Federal Press Conference, Regional Press Conference, etc.).
4. Journalists with written press assignments from their editor or editorial office (on original letterhead, signed by the responsible editor with details of the name and position of the journalist to be accredited).
5. Blogger and YouTuber working as editor or journalist in their media (as detailed in the website imprint or editorial office, or verified in writing by their editor or editorial office).
6. Journalists who already reported on FILMFEST DRESDEN in the past and are able to verify this.
7. Press representatives from government bodies, associations and other official institutions (verified by the responsible authority, office, etc.).

FILMFEST DRESDEN reserves the right to decide who is issued a press accreditation. All decisions are final and not subject to legal appeal.

Press contact:

Agentur Kleber Film PR

Dagny Kleber

Telefon: +49.171.4024803

E-Mail: filmfestdresden@kleberfilmpr.de